

CLEMSON AREA TRANSIT AMERICANS WITH DISABILITY ACT POLICY STATEMENT

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) prohibits discrimination and ensures equal opportunity for persons with disabilities in employment, State and local government services, public accommodations, commercial facilities, and transportation. It also mandates the establishment of TDD/telephone relay services. The ADA was revised by the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-325), which became effective on January 1, 2009. The ADA is codified at 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.

A disability is defined as a permanent or temporary physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

The ADA law also protects those who have a record or, or who are regarded as having an impairment.

Clemson Area Transit (CAT) is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in or denied the benefits of its services on the basis of race, color, or national origin, as provided by The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA).
